Chapter 1 by Margarito Martinez

it was a cold windy night 2nd street everyone was asleep except one little boy name jimmy. Jimmy was afraid of the dark he thought about monsters and ghouls so he would always stay awake. He would hear screeches and footsteps at night and see shadows move but he would never get up to look at them. once one of them saw him and scratched the wall while walking towards him he screamed at the top of his lungs but no one heard it was a tall figure but it looked like a shadow . it scratched his face then disapered as jimmy was sitting in his wet bed he thought what was that thing. he looked outside to revealed it was no longer night it was morning. he looked at the wall and the scratches were gone. the next night he had built a fortress of pillows and blankets and set flashlights in his fort. when the ghoul apered jimmy threw all of his bouncy balls at it but it onley chuckled as soon as it walked up to him the light touched its face and it was revealed it was just his father giving him a good night kiss.then he realized he wasnt scratching the walls he was cleaning off the dirt and the scretches were the trees.the monsters where in the trees all the monsters where in the trees so they ran inside and hes mom said whats wrong he said that there was monsters she said monsters ant real then the lights turned off and they all heard roar ing jimmy said do you belive me now she said that was just the wind then she felt someone or something touth her she looked behing her to see a giant shadow creature behind her she started runing it was already to late for the child and the dad. as she ran the monster grabed her leg and made her fall the impact knocked her out.she wolk up next to jimmy and the dad she looked around and saw the monster cooking something it was people she managed to brake free and run into the wild the monster didnt care it settled for the kid and the dad.
